

On Thursday, 15 December 2016 Loreto College held its annual talent show – ‘Loreto’s Got Talent’, the fourth year of the competition. A large number of students took part both on stage and back stage to make the night possible. The school is very fortunate to have enthusiastic teachers such as Ms Deirdre Scully, Mr Bryan Glennon and Ms Florence Heeney who put so much effort into organising the event. They were assisted by students from the Arts Committee who helped to organise the sound, lighting, back drop etc. A big thank you to the staff and student body alike!

We had four judges on the night and we thank them for giving of their time and expertise! We were delighted to welcome Mr Gavin Duffy from Dragon’s Den, Ms Vanessa Butler a music teacher and past pupil of the school, and staff Ms Scully and Ms Gunn. All judges expressed their congratulations to all the students who performed in the show and all agreed picking a winner was a difficult job.
